

Pretoria to Namibia

6 nights from £1768pp

In May 1998, Rovos Rail reopened the passenger rail link between Pretoria and Namibia. This seven-day, six-night journey takes passengers 3 400 kilometres from the savannahs of the Highveld to the shores of the Atlantic Ocean at Swakopmund. Highlights of the journey include Kimberley and the Big Hole, the spectacular Fish River Canyon, the stark beauty of the Kalahari and Namib deserts, a visit to Windhoek, the vibrant capital of Namibia, and an overnight stay at a game lodge bordering Etosha Pan. Journey's end is at Swakopmund, a perfectly preserved nineteenth-century German Hansa town, picked up from the Baltic and set down in the desert of Africa.

It's a remarkable sight and a fitting end - or starting place - for this fascinating journey.
